

IT COPYRIGHT FORM

This form was adapted from the IEEE Copyright form. In order to maintain uniform treatment among all contributors, other forms may not be substituted for this form, nor may any wording of this form be changed. This form is intended for original unpublished material submitted for inclusion in the ConfTele 2009 Proceedings. This form, when completed, must accompany any such material in order to be published by the Instituto de Telecomunicações. Please read it carefully and keep a copy of it for your files.

TITLE OF PAPER (hereinafter, "the work"):

AUTHOR(S):

COPYRIGHT TRANSFER FORM

The undersigned hereby assigns all copyright rights in and to the above work to Instituto de Telecomunicações (IT). The undersigned hereby represents and warrants that the work is original and that he/she is the author of the work, except possibly for material such as text passages, figures, and data that clearly identify the original source, with permission notices from the copyright owners where required. The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to make and execute this assignment.

In return for these rights, IT recognizes the retained rights noted in Items 1 and 3 below, and grants to the above authors and employers for whom the work may have been performed a royalty-free license to use the material as noted in Items 2 and 3. Item 4 stipulates that authors and employers must seek permission to republish in cases not covered by Items 2, 3.

1. Employers (or authors) retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the work.
2. Authors/employers may reproduce or authorize others to reproduce the above work, material extracted verbatim from the above work, or derivative works for the author's personal use or for company use provided that the source and the IT copyright notice are indicated, that the copies are not used in any way that implies IT endorsement of a product or service of an employer, and that the copies themselves are not offered for sale. (See "Author/Company Rights" overleaf.)
3. Authors/employers may make limited distribution of all or portions of the above work prior to publication if they inform IT of the nature and extent of such limited distribution prior thereto.
4. For all circumstances not covered by Items 2, and 3, authors/employers must request permission from IT to reproduce or authorize the reproduction of the work or material extracted verbatim from the work, including figures and tables.

Please note that, although authors are permitted to reuse all or portions of their IT-copyrighted material in other works, this does not include granting third-party requests for reprinting, republishing, or other types of reuse. All third-party requests must be handled by IT.

AUTHORIZED SIGNATURE

JOINT AUTHORSHIP

For jointly authored works, all the joint authors should sign, or one of the authors should sign as an authorized agent for the others. In the case of multiple authorship where one or more authors are Government employees but at least one author is not, the non-Government author should sign Part A of this copyright transfer form.

Notes and Information for Authors and Their Employers

CLEARANCE OF PAPERS — applies to all material submitted to IT: "IT must of necessity assume that material presented at its meetings is properly available for general dissemination to the audiences these activities are organized to serve. It is the responsibility of the authors, not IT, to determine whether disclosure of their material requires the prior consent of other parties and, if so, to obtain it."

Furthermore, if an author uses within his/her article material that has been previously published and/or is copyrighted by another party, IT must assume that permission has been obtained for such use and that any required credit lines, copyright notices, etc., are duly noted.

IT OBLIGATIONS

In exercising its rights under copyright, IT will make all reasonable efforts to act in the interests of the authors and employers as well as in its own interest. In handling third-party requests for permission to reprint or republish IT work, IT requires that 1) the consent of the first-named author be sought as a condition in granting republication (of a full paper) to others; and 2) the consent of the employer be obtained as a condition in granting permission to others to reuse all or portions of a paper for promotion or marketing purposes.

AUTHOR/COMPANY RIGHTS

If you are employed and you prepared your paper as a part of your job, the rights to your paper may rest initially with your employer. In that case, when you sign the copyright transfer form, we assume you are authorized to do so by your employer and that your employer has consented to all the terms and conditions of this form. If not, it should be signed by someone so authorized. (See also CLEARANCE OF PAPERS, above.)
